Sharon Elise Douglas, 54, died on Thursday, March 17th.

Born July 19, 1961 to the Late Otis Eugene Douglas Sr. and Annie Lee (Cowan) Douglas, she is a homemaker and former employee for the Charlotte Observer. A native of Charlotte, North Carolina, Sharon graduated from Olympic High School.

As a young woman, Ms. Douglas enjoyed playing softball and cheering on the Baltimore Orioles. She was such a fan of baseball, she tried to collect every mini-helmet that she could get her hands on. Her love of sports did not end with just baseball. In her spare time, she enjoyed cheering on the San Francisco 49ers, her favorite football team.

As a sister and aunt, she would always call or send text messages to her family just to say 'Hello'. She always had a listening ear in offering support to her family during difficult times.

Sharon is survived by: brother, Otis Douglas Jr; and three sisters, Harriet Hargrove, Sandra Holloway and Regina Jackson; longtime companion, Nathaniel Stitt; step-daughters, Emily Stitt and Sherri McQueary; and three step-grandchildren Kymonie, Keasia, and Marli. She is further survived by seven nieces, six nephews, other relatives and friends.

Ms. Sharon Douglas will be missed and her memory will be fondly in our hearts forever.

Tribute Wall

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: "Throw your burdn on Jehovah, and he will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.
