

Shela Ann Ingram

April 9, 1960 - October 14, 2023

Shela Ingram, age 63, passed away unexpectedly October 14, 2023 at Atrium Health Main. Shela Ingram was born on April 9, 1960 to Barbara Ingram and Johnny Dumas in Charlotte, NC. After graduating from West Charlotte High School, Shela pursued her passion working in the healthcare field as a CNA until she retired in 2022. Shela accepted Christ, got baptized and became a member of Reeder Memorial Baptist Church March 19, 1996. After becoming a member, she joined many missionaries, the mass choir and the ensemble choir. God gave her a vision to serve and give back to the community. In 2012, she opened a food pantry at Reeder Memorial Baptist Church. My Mother was a Praying, loving, humble, compassionate, kind, and caring, understanding woman. She taught me love, patience and endurance. She taught me how to pray and led by example. She was never afraid to be my mother — to put her foot down, to teach me right from wrong, to make sure I did my best. She always let me know I had a Mother who cared about me, who believed in me, who was there for me no matter what. She enjoyed spending quality time with family and friends, reading the bible, going to church, cooking, and Fishing. She was preceded in death by her parents: Barbara Ingram and Johnny Dumas; grandmother, Jenny Ingram; sister, Velma Ingram; brother, Vincent Ingram; and her brother/ cousin, Randy Ingram. She leaves to cherish her loving memories: one daughter, Shabrii Ingram; one aunt, Mary Ingram; two nephews, Valdron Ingram (Jayne), Jameon Ingram; two great nieces, Kelly Orr, Indasia Ingram, and a host of relatives and friends.
