

Sherman Massey III

October 25, 1973 - December 12, 2013

Sherman Massey, III "Sonny" was born October 25, 1973 in Charlotte, NC to Sherman Massey Jr. and Betty Kirk Massey. He attended West Charlotte High School, received his GED from Robeson Community College and went on to receive his Culinary Arts Certificate.

He belonged to Paul Drayton Masonic Lodge # 7. He was a basketball coach at Greater Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, where he also played softball on the men's team. He also played baseball with the Rock Hill O's of Rock Hill, SC and the Trojans of Charlotte, NC. He loved to sing and was a member of the Men's Choir of Greater Mt. Sinai and when we moved membership, joined the Men's Choir of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in SC. He was a true Dallas cowboy fan. Sonny was a protector and died as such. He use to say "His past was his blessing" and wanted to make sure that he helped all the young men around him. He loved children and kept up with all of his nieces, nephews and cousins. He tried to attend all of their games and activities. He loved his aunt Marcie and use to say I just need a "hug". He was a person who never met a stranger. He loved his family truly loved his family and the only wanted them to do right and get their lives together to take care and love each other.

Sherman was preceded in death by Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Massey Sr. (grandparents), Barbara Patterson (God-mother), Lennie Massey (uncle), Duane Massey (nephew).

He leaves to cherish Andrea C. Massey (wife), Roderick J. Chisholm (son), Calvin J. Chisholm (son), Kolby M. Chisholm (daughter) of Charlotte, NC, Sherman Massey Jr. (father), Betty Kirk Massey (mother), Andrew Chisholm Jr. (Bertha, in laws), Debra Massey (sister), Marshall (brother), Alysia Farley (Cheron, sister-in-law), Andrew (KC) Chisholm III (brother-in-law) all from Charlotte, NC; a host of nephews, nieces, great nieces, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
