“ Ohh Mann, Ms.Jackson was one of my Teachers at Albemarle Road Middle, My family and I evacuated, back in 2005, due to Hurricane Katrina...I wasn't even there for Long but it's Just something about thys Lady that I've Always Loved ! I actually searched her up to Reach Out and See how she was doing, not even sure if she would have remembered me...to end up on this Site,, Hurts My Soul ! Mann, I wish I could have stayed in contact with you, I was only 12 years old, but you were always a Dear person to Me & you've always been in my Heart, you were Soo Nice To Me ! Lol, I remember the Day I Made you Angry, bekause I kept Kalling you "Sophia", you wanted to rip my Head Off,, I was extremely Aggravating, && I Fought a Lot, But you knew I meant Well & That's Why I Loved You ! Please Know that, you have Someone at a Distance that Loves You and Misses You ! I hate that I'm Late to Know, But it's All Good ! Rest On My Love, Ms.Jackson !!

“ I met Sophia through her brother years ago, and she left an impression on me that made want better for me and my daughter, the heights she reached in this life was so inspiring, I remember being at her apartment in Charlotte just soaking in her vibe ! She was light and I will never forget her! Rest well Sophia

“ Sophie was my childhood best friend. When I had money, she had and vice versa as we came from the projects of George Legare. I was one of her first students, she was not only my best friend but personal tutor and I always thank God for that. Sophie always brought the best out of those she cared about and challenged you to excel. We had great times in the band and our competitions. I truly believe I excelled in my military career because she gave me a solid writing foundation and focus to do my best. Sophie was great at everything she strived to achieve and I know her greatest accomplishment by far was Mother! I pray my dear friend rest in HIM and watch over us all until we meet again. Heaven gained a beautiful soul and Angel. Love you Sophie, transitioned from this earth but will never be forgotten as you touched so many lives.

“ Sophia! Sophia! Sophia! That’s how I greeted you EVERY time. I’m so amazed that our paths would cross is this “big ole’ world” by way of Albemarle Road MS. Your grace and will power during your health challenge, your intellect, your dedication to your students was something to behold, but guiding your princess to a young Queen is what I’ll remember the most. Job well done! Life well lived! ”

“ Sophia & I were college classmates, English majors & roommates. I can think of conversations we had and you've by far surpassed the goals you planned for your life. I recollect on our last meeting and conversation as we definitely agreed who would have thought we would make it this far. Well, we did. You went on to be an Educator and have touched so many youthful minds. I must say that you have marked your LEGACY and I am so PROUD of you. I am a true believer that 'May the work I do speak for Me'. Your work has been completed here on earth and God has accepted a Matriarch into his kingdom. I pray that your soul and spirit is resting in th arms of our Heavenly Father. Sophia Jackson, God promised us that he would never leave nor forsake us. For that alone I believe you've earned heavenly home. Well Done, Well Done. 🙏❤️
