

Stephen Joseph Nathaniel Faber

October 4, 1949 - May 7, 2023

Stephen Joseph Nathaniel Faber was born on October 4, 1949 in Belize City, Belize to Alexia Martin and James Faber. Stephen was number 8 of 11 children. Growing up Stephen had several nicknames such as Spartacus and Black Cat because of his bravery and strength. In 1968, Stephen relocated from Belize to the United States when he was 19 years old. His first stop was Chicago, IL where he lived for a few years before moving to Brooklyn, NY. In 1973, Stephen started his family with the birth of his daughter Dorella, followed by his son, Stephen, Jr. in 1975, and daughter Stephanie in 1979. Stephen was known by many for his protective and no nonsense personality. But those who knew him well knew that he liked to tell stories and was quite the jokester. After retiring from his career in construction as a drywall tapper, Stephen retired and relocated to Charlotte, NC with his long-time love and wife, Leonilla in 2016. On May 7, 2023 Stephen returned home to the lord. Stephen is survived by his daughter Dorella; son Stephen Jr. and daughter-in-law Corriisa; daughter Stephanie; 13 grandchildren; 4 great grandchildren; 6 siblings Frank Faber, Diana Harris, Jennifer Sanchez, Kent Faber, Shirley Faber, and Sonia Faber; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, god-children, family, and friends.
