

Thelma Sellers Wolfe

December 11, 1936 - December 5, 2015

Thelma Sellers Wolfe, the daughter of the late Alonzo Sellers and Lula Johnson Sellers, was born October 11, 1936, in Anson County (Wadesboro), North Carolina. She departed this life on Saturday, December 5, 2015 at Novant Health Center.

She received Christ at an early age and joined Flat Rock Baptist Church in Wadesboro, NC. The Sellers' family was always in church on Sunday and attended neighboring churches – Deep Creek, Cedar Creek, Long Pine and East Rocky Ford. Thelma attended A.C.T.S. High School in Wadesboro, NC.

As an adult, she moved to Charlotte and married the late Albert Wolfe. She was a homemaker and enjoyed cooking, cleaning, and caring for others. Their home was immaculate. Albert and Thelma welcomed family members into their home. After the sudden death of her sister-in-law, Elizabeth Timmons; they raised their nephew – the late Obrey Timmons and niece – the late Sarah Timmons Johnson.

Thelma was a kindhearted - easy spirit person that was very quiet and private in her own way. Her hobbies were cooking for family gatherings, watching the soaps, working word puzzle books and proudly cheering for the Carolina Panthers.

She was preceded in death by her son, Rodney Sellers; brothers John W. Sellers and H. Bernard Sellers; and sisters Christine S. Little and Ida S. Caraway.

Thelma is survived by her god-daughter Mary Parker, grandchildren: Mario Liles and Rodney Sellers, Jr. of Wadesboro, NC, Derrick Sellers of Morven, NC, Sean Sellers of Ansonville, NC, Brian Sellers of Augusta, GA along with Patrice and Patricia Parker of Rock Hill, SC and eight great-grandchildren. Brothers: Reginald (Kandy) Sellers and Gregory (Holiday) Sellers of Charlotte, NC and Charles (Jacqueline) Sellers of District Heights, MD. Sister: Martha Hough of Charlotte, NC and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends .
