

Timothy Leroy Rice

September 6, 1967 - August 8, 2020

Timothy Leroy Rice (Big Tim/ Big Rice) was born September 6th 1967 to his biological parents Mary L Rice and Billy McDavid in Anderson, SC. Timothy was raised in the home of his father and Mother Willie and Lizzie Rice whom preceded him in death. He received his primary education in South Carolina, graduating from Belton-Honea Path High School in 1985. Timothy relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina in 1989. In September 1998 he had his first and only son Timothy Rice Jr who is lovingly called TJ.

On June 11, 2017 Timothy married his love and soulmate Latasha Rice in Charlotte, NC. They were known to everyone as TNT and always was the life of the party.

Timothy was a hardworking and devoted employee. He worked for Charlotte Pipe and Foundry for over 20 years. He also worked at various clubs in Charlotte as Security and built a strong brotherhood with his fellow security friends.

When Timothy was not working and spending time with his family. He rode his motorcycle with his Boss Riders Motorcycle Club, hung out with his friends or got a comfortable spot on the couch and got a good nap.

On Saturday August 8th 2020 he entered into Eternal rest.

Tim had a fun and loving personality, unique laugh and was very kind hearted. Tim was dearly loved and will truly be missed.

To: Latasha and Family - so sorry for your loss. What a heartbreaking time in this life to endure. Met him when he was a very young Lad visiting Morristown, NJ with his family. They stopped by my mother "Aunt Magdalene (more commonly, fondly and lovingly known as "Aunt Bear"); and Uncle Calvin Glover's place (R.I.P.). By viewing and admiring all the precious moments captured in the photos posted, one can tell that he was truly very well loved and admired! May he R.I. Paradise.
