“He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, or pain anymore, for the former things have passed away - Revelation 21:4”

Towanda Horton, a cherished individual known for her kind, loving, caring and humorous personality left us on October 27, 2024. She was born on July 27, 1969, in Charlotte, North Carolina, to Dorothy and Themon Horton II where she grew up with her three siblings, Jennifer, Themon and Shawn in a loving family environment. At a very young age, she received the nickname “Totoo” which describes her wonderful unique personality to a tee. Towanda attended Olympic High School and graduated in 1988 and went on to attend ECPI College of Technology in Charlotte, North Carolina. In 1997, She joined Charlotte Mecklenburg School System Transportation Team as a Bus Driver and exhibited a thirst for safety and love for all students under her watch. She was very passionate for her family especially her five grandchildren and her bonus son.
