

Tracey Renee Smith-Miller

April 1, 1971 - June 15, 2024

Tracey Renee Smith-Miller was born April 1st, 1971 to the late Stanley Smith and Debra Adams. She entered her eternal rest June 15th 2024. Tracey was full of life; she could step into a room and lighten it up. She was very authentic and passionate and stood for honesty. She was an excellent mother to her 5 children, and ALWAYS made sure they were straight. Tracey was a great cook! She was famous for her Mac N Cheese, greens, potato salad, and all the meats. Everyone loved all of it and always asked for that hot sauce on the side. lol. Tracey LOVED her husband dearly, and they never gave up on each other. They loved dancing to music, as long as it was on blast for the whole house to shake. Lol Mama loved her loud music. She was a loving and caring person, and adored her 20 grandchildren. Tracey was preceded in death by her parents; Stanley Smith and Debra Adams, one brother; Elemiel Smith. Tracey leaves to cherish her memories her husband: Hurlie Miller, five children; Qynchetta Bowden, Nigel Johnson, Michael Wallace II, Donteia Smith, Keisha Smith, two sisters; Felicia Sims, Alicia Gourdine (Paul), twenty grandchildren (you know who you are lol), and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Tracey was an honest and loving soul. She was the same way in her childhood. Her mother, Debra and I were close friends in school, before I realized my "Boo" was her first cousin, who later became my husband. We shared Sunday Dinners together with our families as adults. FEE-FEE, TRACEY, and LEM started calling me Aunt Delilah, and Uncle Charles. One of our, or should I say my favorite vegetables was Rutabagas. Try them. You won't ever forget the sweet and unique taste. They started calling them Rutababies. Tracey will always be one of my Rutababies, just like LEM, FEE-FEE, and later on LISA. Rest In Peace Baby Girl. We Love You Dearly. Uncle Charles & Aunt Delilah. 💕💕
