Tribute Wall

“ I know words can't take away the hurt you're feeling. Treska was my softball buddy while playing for St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church back in the 'ole days. I played third base, her sister, Lynn played first base and Treska played as left outfielder. Treska and I usually was arguing throughout the softball game about when will I caught a ball and when will she hit a homerun. All our joy and laughter will be missed, but she finally hit her homerun when her suffering and pain was erased and the Lord said, "Come on home"! Even as my tears rolled for your loss, I will always remember Treska, she was one of the best people I ever met.

*With blessings and continued prayers,

“ Treska I'm really going to miss you. Your smile, your dancing. I just can't bring myself to believe you will not be at any of the family functions but I find comfort in knowing you are in no more pain and no more sorrow. You and Nana will be dancing in heaven. RIP until we met again. Give Nana a hug and my dad. Love you girl 🥺💔💔💔
