

Vantrea Gwenae Brown

February 20, 1963 - May 16, 2024

Vantrea Gwenae Brown, was born on February 20, 1963, to Maryann Gaston and Jimmie Bennett. She was a true native Charlottean for most of her life. Vantrea, a.k.a. “Trea”, spent her early years in First Ward and Dalton Village Homes. She was a student at Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools and attended Olympic High School. She also spent time in the National Job Corp. Vantrea never met a stranger. Once she met you, she never forgot your face. With her amazing memory, she had a special gift of recalling detailed life events for family and friends. If you knew Vantrea a little, you could appreciate her “candidness” to say exactly what she was thinking. Every year, Vantrea looked forward to the Dalton Village reunion. She thoroughly enjoyed the time to reconnect with friends and family who made it a point to have a conversation with her. At the end of the reunions she attended, Vantrea made sure to let her family know she was the Dalton Village Queen of the Day. Vantrea was preceded in death by her mother Maryann Gaston, father Jimmie Bennett, and brother John “Ricky” Evans. Vantrea is survived by her children Eddricco Brown, Marquis Brown, Precious Bess, Jamie Chambers, and Tayonna Brown; sisters Nichelle Bennett Williams and Twanna Bennett Helms. She leaves to cherish four grandchildren and a host of family, friends, and her dedicated pet companion, Ms. Sasha.
