“ Miss you Mommy. I know you are healed and whole now, rejoicing with the Father.

Continue to watch over us. I still believe God.

Love your #1 daughter.

“ Dear Erica, Kim and family,
With deepest sympathy to all of the family. Virginia, your mom, grandmother, sister, aunt, was my sister-friend. The more enriched a person makes our lives, the harder it is to let go. Virginia was a beacon of light to all who knew her. I will forever hold on to the fond, loving memories that we shared. I thank God for allowing our paths to cross. God we thank You for comfort and strength during this time of grief. Virginia will forever live on in all our hearts.
Love always,
Ms. Vivian aka Peaches

“ Auntie E.V. 😊

Our first encounter that I remember:

You and I sat down at my dinner table and drank our favorite cappios and you shared my beginnings with me. For the first time, I heard stories about my earliest childhood. For that, I will forever carried your sweet unconditional love in my heart and keep a smile of gratitude on my face. When I think of "lovely" I see you.

Oh, how I will remember that I am loved because of the gift of unconditional love you have shared with me and my daughter. Auntie EV I will miss your presence. Heaven is bursting with joy at your arrival!
