

Walter Lee Smith Jr.

June 8, 1963 - August 12, 2020

Walter Lee Smith, Jr. "Denny" was born June 8, 1963 to the late Walter Lee Smith, Sr. and Barbara Jo Smith in Charlotte, North Carolina. He entered into eternal rest on August 12, 2020. He received his primary education at Central Piedmont Community College. Walter was married to Ms. Sylvia Miller and to this union were born Walter Lee Smith, III and Isaac Jordan Smith.

Walter started his relocation career as a worker with his Uncle Mitch at Lawrence Van Line, then worked with his brother Henry Hall, Jr., as well as numerous relocation companies. His love for helping people relocate inspired him to start Anointed Movers, his very own relocation services. His love for the Lord and desire to help others created a strong praying ministry with his clients and so many others.

Walter loved the Lord, he had a fun, loving and giving personality, and enjoyed SERVING people. He was a faithful member of Greater Mount Zion Fire Baptized Holiness Church. Walter served on the Deacon Board, Vice President of the Usher Board, an Armor Bearer, Male Troupe Choir President, Zion Ensemble Choir Member, South Central District Choir Member, and Combination Fellowship Choir Member. He also served on BBB (Brothers helping Brothers to become Brothers).

Walter's favorite saying was "God is Good". His favorite scripture was Matthew 17:20 He loved sports and mentoring young men, and was a volunteer as a basketball coach with McCrorey YMCA and Mountain Island Day Community Charter School. He was dearly loved by many and will truly be missed.

Walter leaves to cherish fond memories his sons Walter Lee Smith, III and Isaac Jordan Smith, both of Charlotte, NC; mother of his children, Sylvia Miller Smith of Charlotte, NC; step daughter, Ashlee Briana Miller of Boca Raton, FL; two sisters, Tammy Jo Smith and Jade Nicole Smith Shippy (Christopher) of Mount Holy, NC; beloved aunt, Alberta Hall of Charlotte, NC; uncle, James M. Lockhart (Connie); special cousins (brothers), Donald Hall of Hanau, Germany; Ronald Hall and Henry Hall, Jr. of Charlotte, NC; and a host of loving family and friends.

“ I'm gonna really miss walter. Now when the church opens, I won't see him playing bongos or hearing him sing "God kept me here". He was a true man of God and wonderful person. Love you walter and you will be missed by everyone...
