

William Douglas Cousart

November 2, 2014

William Douglas Cousart affectionately known to many as “Big Will” departed this life on November 02, 2014. He was born to Betty L. Cousart (Bobby) and the Late William L. McVay (Ida) on July 1, 1980. As a child, William was full of energy and was forever doing something... it seemed as though he had no fear. William’s love for video games followed him into adulthood and he often shared this passion for fun through friendly competitions with his family and friends. He was a diehard Washington Redskins fan. William was a loving son, brother and uncle and a faithful friend to many in person, over the phone, via text, and even on Facebook. William attended Myers Park High School. William joined Higher Praise International Deliverance Ministries where he surrendered his life to God.

William leaves many behind to cherish his memory to include his mother, Betty Cousart (Bobby); grandmother Doretha Cousart; four sisters Shannon Cousart, Sherie Lowery (Derrick), Ida McVay (Rick), Eleanor Elliott (James); three brothers Rayshawn Cousart, William McVay Jr., Charles McVay (Shauntel); and twelve nieces and nephews Dejah, Derrick Jr., Dylin, Joanie, Latoya, Sarah, Iyasha, William, Elijah, Brianna, Emmanuel, and Kadajah. William also leaves behind aunts, uncles, great nieces and a great nephew and cousins in addition to a host of friends. William will forever be in our hearts. We ask that you remember William for his smile, laugh, and kindness.
