“ I lost touch with mister ford and his family , junior and Joyce, not long before Willie passed, apparently. I was sad to hear about his passing. It's rare to meet someone like Mr. Ford, and he made life, in general, so much brighter with just his smile. I will miss him, and the joy he brought to my life with his stories he would tell me about his life and experiences. The world is not near as bright without him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. I miss you Willie! Ben Cooper.
