“ I worked with Willie for nearly 20 years and the picture that is posted of him is the way that I will always remember him. Every day that I saw him he would be wearing that big smile, no matter how his day had gone. He never called me by my first name nor do I think he called anyone by their first name it was always the last name which to me was giving a man respect. He never called me Harry but it was always Love. he even called me by my last name the last time that we spoke. He was a good friend to all of us at Florida Steel yet we feel like he was a brother rather than another worker. Our heart goes out to you and we feel your loss. Ben was a good man!
